Producer and Holder of Beer Certificate of Registration

The above-named person and premises have been registered under Sections 41A and 47 of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 to produce and hold beer without payment of duty.

The registration number may be used only by the person in respect of the premises named above and must be used solely for the purpose of their activities as a registered producer and holder of beer.

This certificate will remain the property of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs. It should be kept on the premises to which it relates at all times and produced for inspection on demand.

Any change in the particulars contained in the application for registration, except where there is a change in the quantity of beer produced/packaged each year, must be immediately notified in writing to the Excise Processing Teams at the below address:

HMRC,
Excise Processing Teams (EPT)

Please note that as registered, your premises are a tax warehouse but not an excise warehouse. Information on excise warehouses can be found in Excise Notice 196: excise goods - registration and approval of warehousekeepers, warehouse premises, owners of goods and registered consignors and Excise Notice 197: receipt into and removal from an excise warehouse of excise goods on the GOV.UK website.

Your registration is subject to the following conditions and requirements: -

Only the following classes and descriptions of beer may be held on the registered premises without payment of duty.

- A. Bulk beer held on the same or adjacent premises to which it was produced.
- B. Packaged beer held on the same or adjacent premises to which it was produced or packaged.
- C. Bulk beer which was produced elsewhere.
- D. Packaged beer which was produced elsewhere.

Class D entitlement is restricted to brewers where the holding and movement of duty suspended packaged beer, produced by other brewers, is incidental to the brewing of beer.

Use of CHIEF number GB00004371062 is restricted to the importation of Beer, as per Beer Duty Notice 226.
